

Farmor's House System: Tame

John Tame

John & Edmund Tame

John Tame (1430-1500), a wealthy wool producer and merchant, obtained the lease for the Manor of Fairford in 1479.

Responsible for the building of St. Mary's Church, Fairford.

After his father's death Edmund Tame (1471-1534) completed the construction of St. Mary's Church. Edmund was Sheriff of Gloucestershire (1505-1513) and knighted by Henry VIII in 1516.