Raising a concern/ complaint

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Farmor's School encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- ▶ Farmor's School Complaints policy details the steps involved in making a formal complaint. This policy is available on the school website.
- ▶ A complaint should be submitted in writing to the Head Teacher. The form in Appendix A could be used for this purpose.
- ▶ Complaints received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 2 calendar days.

How a formal complaint is investigated

- ▶ The Head Teacher will decide if the matter falls within the complaints procedure and in acknowledging receipt will confirm the name of the member of staff who is dealing with the complaint and outline the next steps.
- ▶ If the Headteacher decides that the matter does not fall within the complaints procedure then this will be explained together with advice about what to do next.
- ▶ The Head Teacher will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.
- ▶ You will be offered the opportunity to meet with the Head Teacher to try and bring the matter to a satisfactory conclusion. A written response to this meeting will be made within five days.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted. This is detailed in Stage 3 of the Farmor's School Complaints Policy.
