

THE LIBRARY

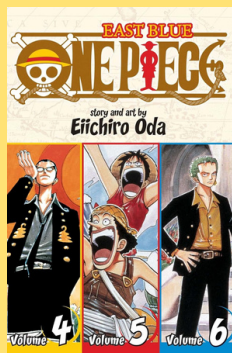

12.09.25

Happy Friday! It's been a very soggy week indeed. We've made the most of a leak in the library and now have a self watering plant! The library does get very full as the weather gets colder, so do make sure to check out the library website and have a browse on there too. We have over 2000 books, so lunch break goes very quickly. Next week we have an exciting Author event for Y7 students. Don't forget to buy your books so Simon James Green can sign them whilst he's here.
