

THE LIBRARY

Newsletter – 4.7.25– Farmor's School

Happy Friday one and all! I am very glad the weather has cooled down but is still gloriously sunny. It has been another busy week in the library and I'm very excited to tell you about Gloucestershire's Library Challenge - which will be running over the summer. If you complete the library challenge and bring in your completed journal (your local library will stamp the journal for you), and you will be rewarded!

The Library Challenge

12 July - 13 September 2025

Take part and complete the The Library Challenge through Gloucestershire Libraries to receive the following rewards:

Bronze: 5 merits & 5 house points!

Silver: 10 merits & 10 house points!

Gold: 15 merits & 15 house points + entry into a prize draw in September.

FAQ's

- I don't live in Gloucestershire, can I still take part?

Yes! Visit your local library and take part in their summer challenge - you will still be rewarded.

- How do I claim my rewards?

In September - bring your completed Library Challenge journal to the school library.

- My library doesn't use the BorrowBox app, can I still use it?

Yes! You can register for the borrowbox app online and open a Gloucestershire Library account even if you live in a neighbouring county.
