

THE LIBRARY

05.09.25

Welcome back! It has been wonderful to see the library busy again this week. If you are new to the library, you don't need a card to borrow books. You can borrow books straight away, just take them to the desk and myself or a student librarian will book them out for you. Below are a reminder of the library rules and some of the exciting events we have coming up! And don't forget to explore the library website, click the orange button below.
