Picture the victim of a scam online.
Who are they?

What signs of a scam do you know?

Too good to be true?

False urgency?

A ‘trusted’ voice?

Getting emotional?

Unexpected contact?

Asking for money or personal information?

Phishing

Online shopping scams

Impersonation

Romance scams

Money muling

What can you do to protect yourself from scams and fraud online?

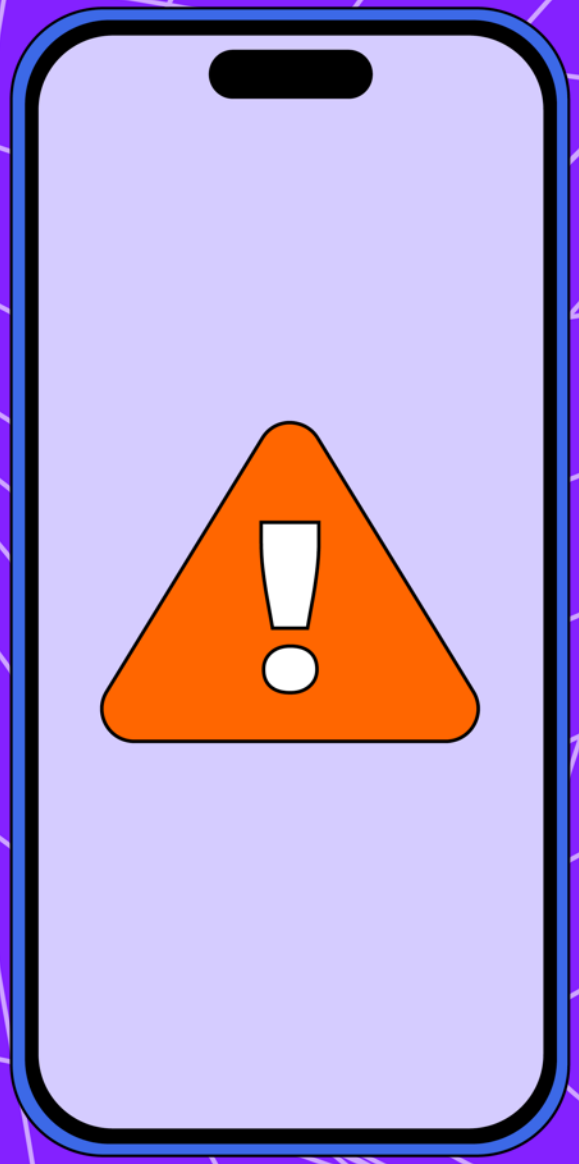
Using strong and separate passwords

Taking caution with online purchases

Using 2SV

Look out for the signs of a scam before deciding if something online can be trusted

Talk to a trusted adult if you’re unsure



If you've been the victim of a scam, report it to ActionFraud.police.uk or by calling 0300 123 2040
Or in Scotland by calling 101

Forward suspicious emails to report@phishing.gov.uk

Forward suspicious texts to 7726

Report fake adverts to the Advertising Standards Authority

Report fake websites to the National Cyber Security Centre

You can also usually report social media users or sellers on online marketplaces directly in the app
