

Farmor's School opportunity to host Chinese students.

In June of next year (2027) we will be hosting around fifteen Year 7 age students who are visiting from China. Each one will stay with a nominated family and will accompany a Farmor's School student to school every day for three weeks. The project has many aims including promoting cultural diversity and providing host and visiting students with valuable experiences. Families of students in Years 7 and 8 can host the visiting students.

FAQ and answers

- How many children can I host?
It depends on your home setting and sleeping arrangements. Each child must have their own bed. We would generally say 1 per family, though this could change.
- Can I choose whether to have a boy or a girl to stay?
Yes, but it will also be based on the gender of own child.
- Will we know anything about our child before they arrive?
Yes, your co-ordinator will provide that information nearer the time.
- Do I have to plan special activities?
No, just take them along on weekends with what you are doing, if your own children do anything that they could join in on.
- If there are any problems with our student settling, what can I do?
Email your co-ordinator first, she will liaise with the visiting Chinese teacher(s). They may be a little homesick but usually settle well.
- What if they get ill when they are here?
They have medical insurance, again please let the co-ordinator know and she will liaise.
- Will they want to contact home?
Most probably more in the first few days, and then maybe once a week.
- Will my costs be covered and is this taxable?
£750 per student is provided for the three weeks - non-taxable.
